

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Northumbria University
England

Dr Ram Manohar Lohiya
National Law University (RMLNLU)
India

Date Memorandum is to take effect: 7 January 2016

- 1 This Memorandum of Understanding recognises the intention of Dr Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University (RMLNLU) and Northumbria University to establish a relationship, co-operate in a broad range of areas and to work together for mutual benefit. The parties may seek to encourage and develop collaborative activities in various ways, including but not limited to: the exchange of scholarly ideas/expertise and research; the support of specific discipline interaction; the development of programmes to include student exchange; and advanced entry from one institution to the other where the students are appropriately qualified.
- 2 Separate agreements will be required for any definitive collaborations, as defined by Northumbria. The parties understand that any financial considerations associated with any collaboration will be dealt with separately via a legal contract.
- 3 Both parties recognise the value of this Memorandum of Understanding in promoting its own programmes and activities. However, any marketing material/activity which includes reference to the other Party must be sent to that Party and be approved before use.
- 4 This Understanding is for 3 years in the first instance, and will be reviewed thereafter. Each party has the right to discontinue the arrangements subject to a period of 12 months' notice being given. This Understanding may also be terminated at any time by mutual consent of all the parties.
- 5 In any cases of discontinuance, the parties will honour agreed commitments either via the accepted arrangements or by suitable negotiated alternatives.
- 6 This Memorandum of Understanding signifies a statement of intention to collaborate, but is not a legally binding document and has no force of law.

Signatures to the agreement.
