Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow got an opportunity to host XXV Bar Council of India Moot Court Competition 2008. The event was held on 20th to 22nd December 2008. Being the silver jubilee celebration, there were almost 30 teams participating including all the National Law Universities and other colleges from all over India. We got an extended support from Bar Council of India Trust, New Delhi along with major sponsors like Lexis-Nexis, Walter Kluver Publications, Oxford University Press, Eastern Book Company, Universal Publications, Ekta Law House, Rudraksh Builders and many others.

The competition commenced with the inaugural ceremony on 20th December 2008 which saw the presence of our chief guest Prof A. Lakshminath , Chancellor Andhra Pradesh University of Law, Mr S.C. Misra , Member of Parliament , and the Chairman UP State Advisory Council was the guest of honour and it was presided over by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajiv Sharma of Allahabad High Court.

The event concluded with a grand valedictory ceremony held on 22nd December wherein the chief guest Hon'ble Mr Justice Tarun Chatterjee, Judge, Supreme Court of India along with the guest of honour Hon'ble Mr Justice Pradeep Kant ,Senior Judge, Lucknow Bench Allahabad High Court and Mr S.N.P Sinha ,Chairman ,B.C.I and many more graced the occasion.

In the end of the nail-biting competition National Law University (NLSIU) Bangalore turned out to be the winner at the 25th Bar Council of India Moot Court Competition. The runners-up for the competition was NLU Jodhpur. While Surya Kiran Banerjee from NLSIU Bangalore bagged the Best Male Advocate award, Sindhu Vasudev of NLU Jodhpur was chosen the Best Female Advocate of the event.

It was indeed an honour and privilege to host such a prestigious competition and it was a great learning experience for the students and the participants from all across the country. The Bar Council of India presented a plaque of honour to Prof Balraj Chauhan, the Director of the university for the successful conduct of the Silver Jubilee Competition.
