

Prof. Balraj Chauhan elected as a member of Presidium of Asian Society of Criminology

Asian Criminological Society meeting was held at the University of Macau, Macau Special Administrative Region (SAR), China from Dec, 17-20, 2009. Prof. Balraj Chauhan was invited to participate, however he could not attend because of unavoidable reasons. In recognition to academic standing and excellent work done by Prof. Chauhan in the field of criminology and criminal justice the general assembly of the Asian Criminological Society has elected Prof. Balraj Chauhan as a member of Presidium (Executive Council).

It will bring opportunity for Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University to act as a Centre of Excellence in promoting the cause of criminology and Criminal Justice Administration in Asian Countries. All faculty members, teachers, administrative staff congratulated Prof. Balraj Chauhan for this achievement.

