

Director's Visit to Philippines

Prof. Balraj Chauhan, Director/Vice-Chancellor of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow went to attend 5th Worldwide Conference of the Global Alliance for Justice Education to be held on 7-13 December 2008 at the Ateneo Law School, Rockwell Drive, Rockwell Center, Makati City Philippines.

The conference aims to introduce new initiatives in justice education, develop and mainstream justice education curricula, and use justice education in a community context. We expect more than 100 international participants to attend, who will be a mix of legal practitioners, advocates, law professors and students, and representatives from legal service NGOs, donor agencies and other organizations with legal programs for the promotion of human rights and social justice.

The purpose of his visit is to increase the reach of the Dr. RMLNLU, Lucknow to the international forum. From his visit more collaborations with international legal community is expected. GAJE is a global alliance of persons committed to achieving Justice through Education. Clinical education of law students is considered a key component of justice education, but the organization also works to advance other forms of socially relevant legal education, including the education of practicing lawyers, judges, non-governmental organizations and the lay public.
