

NOTICE

This is to notify that Association of Indian Universities is organising Anveshan: Student Research Convention, a pioneering initiative to identify and nurture the research talents among young researchers in the country. The conventions will be organised in Five Zones (East, West, North, South and Central) and one at National level. These events are competitive in nature in which innovative and unconventional research projects are to be invited, subjected to scrutiny and selection by experts. Selected projects at the Zonal level are to be sent to National level conventions and finally selected projects will be given cash awards, mementos and certificates. The overall winner of projects across Five Categories will also be awarded a Gold Medal instituted in the name of late Prof. S N Mukherjee, former President, AIU. The North Zone Convention for the current year is scheduled to be held on February 26-27, 2018 at Manav Rachna International University, Faridabad.

The Seminar, Workshop and Special Lectures Committee on behalf of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow is inviting Research Projects in the following areas/field: Social Sciences, Humanities and Law (Objective and Result Oriented Projects). Projects on the above mentioned areas must be original and must have undergone some exploration/ ground work in order to show its feasibility and impact. A maximum number of five projects will be sent to the Zonal level Student Research Convention. Students must submit their Research Projects on the above mentioned areas not later than January 25, 2017 to: facultyseminarrmlnu@gmail.com.

Students are requested to read the detailed guidelines for the Research Convention at <http://www.aiu.ac.in/Research/research.asp> before starting their research projects.
