

XIth Five Year Plan*Rs 10 Crore for BPR&D Research Projects*Eight Research Studies are on the anvil

Planning Commission and Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India have allocated for the first time a financial support of Rupees ten crores to Bureau of Police Research & Development (BPR&D) for the 11th Five Year Plan (2008-2013) to pursue its objective of encouraging, sponsoring and undertaking qualitative research on different aspects of Policing and Prison Administration.

The preparatory work on eight proposed studies has already been started by formulating the objectives of these studies in a meeting held on 26th June 2008 under the chairmanship of Director (R&D), BPR&D. Experts from different institutes, Organizations and Universities and senior Police Officers attended the meeting and gave their valuable suggestions on how these research projects could help the Criminal Justice System in the country. Bureau will shortly be releasing an Advertisement soliciting proposals from Universities, Individuals and Non Government Organizations for undertaking research on the selected subjects. Details of the scheme are available on BPR&D website: www.bprd.gov.in

Proposed Research Projects

- Use of Forensic Tools to promote Good Governance.
- Police Performance Indices for Extremist and Non-Extremist areas.
- National Survey of "Status of Crimes against Women".
- Development of Performance Indices for Prison Staff Personnel
- National Requirement of Manpower for Police for 8Hrs Shift.
- Study of Social, Economic and Political Dynamics in Extremist Affected Areas.
- Identify issues of Police Leadership at National State, District and Police station levels and develop tools for their measurements
- Standardization of Road safety and Enforcement Plans for different Jurisdiction.

Workshop on Development of Crime Mapping Software

BPR&D organized a Workshop on "Development of Crime Mapping Software in India" on 24th May, 2008 at BPR&D headquarters, New Delhi. Sh R C Arora, Director(R&D), BPR&D presided over the Workshop and briefly introduced the participants to the work being initiated by BPR&D on the Development of Crime Mapping Software with the help of National Institute of Justice (NIJ), USA and MHA's formulation of the new scheme of Crime and Criminal Tracking Network Software (CCTNS). Dr. Arvind Verma, Prof. Indiana University, USA made a detailed presentation on the concept of Crime Mapping in USA. Participating Officers from State Police Forces had a lively discussion on the presentation. Ms. Bindu Manghat, Superintendent Surveyor, Survey of India shared the information about the availability of detailed maps of different regions and cities of the country for Crime Mapping in India. The Workshop ended with the decision that BPR&D should conduct a thorough study with the help of the experts and Officers present in the Workshop towards making the Crime Mapping a reality in India.

Scene from the Workshop on Crime Mapping Software at BPRD HQ.

Promoting Good Practices and Standards

Training Programmes

Courses on Crime Investigation

Crime Investigation Course at CDTs Chandigarh

Courses on "Advanced Scientific Methods of Crime Investigation(Level-1)" were organized at the Central Detective Training School, Chandigarh, Kolkata and Hyderabad to impart firsthand training to the Police Officers up to the rank of Sub-Inspector from the States. In all, 55 Police Officers from different State Police Forces participated in these Courses.

UNODC Project Steering Committee Meeting

Fifth meeting of the Project Steering Committee of UNODC Project on "Strengthening the Law Enforcement Response in India against Trafficking in Persons through Training and Capacity Building" was held at the BPR&D Headquarters under the Chairmanship of DG, BPR&D on 8th May 2008. Officers from the Ministry of Home Affairs, Ministry of Woman and Child Development, UNODC and from different States

Inland Long Term Courses

The nominations of Police Officers were finalized in the following Inland Long Term Courses organized during the year 2007-08.

1. MBA (Disaster Management) - Weekend Programme - Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi.
2. Post Graduate Diploma Programme in Public Policy and Management at Management Development Institute, Gurgaon (Haryana).
3. Post Graduate Programme in Public Management and Policy at Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad.
4. Post Graduate Programme in Public Management and Policy at Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore.
5. Defence Services Staff College, Wellington, Tamil Nadu

BPR&D also Co-ordinated following training programmes for the foreign police personnel during the months of May and June.

- Training of Bhutan Police personnel in India
- Training of Fijian Police personnel in India
- Training of Nepal Police personnel in India
- Training of Sri Lankan Police personnel in India
- Training of Seychelles Police personnel in India
- Training of Police personnel of SAARC Member Countries
- Training of Mongolian Police personnel in India
- Training of Cambodian Police personnel in India
- Training of Myanmar Police personnel in India attended the meeting. The meeting was convened to implement the Schemes in the Pilot States.

Workshop on Combating Trafficking in Human Beings

A national level Workshop under the programme of Training of Trainers(TOT) on "Combating Trafficking in Human Beings" was organized from 9th to 11th June, 2008 in collaboration with the Institute of Social Sciences, New Delhi. Officers of the rank of SsP, Additional SsP and other Police Officers from the States attended the Workshop.

Course on Counter-Insurgency and Jungle Warfare

Five Courses on Pre-Induction Training on "Counter-Insurgency and Jungle Warfare" for the Police personnel of Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Orissa were organized at Vairengty, Mizoram and Tezpur, Assam. These courses were conducted with the help of the Indian Army. Thirty Police officers benefited from the training in each course.

New Chapters for the Police Drill Manual

The translation of eight new chapters added to BPR&D Police Drill Manual is under progress and will be published and circulated to all concerned in the country.

Trainees doing Police Drill

New Chapters of BPR&D Police Drill

- Drill and Parade - history and basic movements in Drill
- Role of the Drill Instructor in increasing training.
- Selection and Development of the Drill Instructor.
- Conduct in Uniform.
- Injury Management.
- Medals and Ribbons.
- Flag Code of India.
- Bands and Band Music.

Development

Meeting on Designing the new Police Footwear

Designing of the new Police footwear

Footwear Design & Development Institute(FDDI),NOIDA(UP) has designed a special footwear for Police Personnel and paramilitary Forces. The senior officers of BSF, CRPF, ITBP, NSG, SSB, CISF, Assam Rifles, Delhi Police and BPR&D had a meeting, chaired by Shri Sanjay Baniwal, DD(D) BPR&D, to examine and appraise of the newly developed Shoes on 27th June 2008. Sh. V.B. Parvtiokar, Director (Technical),FDDI explained in detail about the advantages of the newly developed shoes over the existing ones.

Derby Style(Jungle Boot) soles-PU single density

Ankle Boot soles-PU single/Double density

New Police Uniform

A Presentation was made on redesigning of Police Uniform on 27th June 2008 at the BPR&D

Headquarters to consider the functionality, comfort and current trend in terms of design and material and cost involved. The existing uniform need immediate attention for modification. The specifications of the modified pant and belt are seen in the pictures.

Belt

- Belt should have a clip for keys and whistle (there is therefore no need for whistle lanyard)
- As the synthetic/nylon utility belts have a longer life, these may be issued once in ten years.
- Coiled lanyard for weapon.

Pant

- ♦ Action waist band
- ♦ YKK ® locking zipper
- ♦ Back up button
- ♦ Built in silicon shirt stay
- ♦ Keystone belt loops with bar tacks
- ♦ Side pockets designed for access with duty belt
- ♦ Hidden zipper pocket for backup handcuff key
- ♦ Tapered bell with zipper
- ♦ Diamond Gusset crotch

One of the new designs of the Pant

Research

Presentation of Research Fellowship Studies:

Following Presentations were arranged in BPR&D, Hqrs. during May- June,2008

(1) A Ph.D study on "The Status and Role of Female Police in Chhattisgarh—with special reference to Bilaspur Division" was made by the Research Fellow Ms. Himalini Awasthi of Guru Ghasi Das University, Bilaspur on 13th May,2008.

(2) A Ph.D study on "Social Factors of Juvenile Delinquency—A Sociological Study of Culture and Family of Juvenile Delinquency in Varanasi." was made by Ms. V. Reeta of Banaras Hindu University,Varanasi (UP) on 14th May,2008.

The presentations were found to be satisfactory by the participants attending the presentation.

Review of a Research Study

A preview of the Research Study on "Behaviour of Crime Victims" : A Dynamic Approach to Public-Police Interface" was held on 13th June 2008 at the BPR&D Headquarters, New Delhi. Distinguished experts from Police organizations and Universities attended this meeting and offered their valuable suggestions. The study is being done by Dr. S. Latha, Secretary, Indian Society of Criminology, Chennai.

Annual Provost Conference:

BPR&D participated in the Annual Provost Conference of Indian Navy held at Mumbai from 16th to 17th May 2008 to share the thought process, experience, case studies and keeping abreast with the advancement in the field through interaction among different stakeholders. The Conference was attended by 40 Commissioned Officers of Provost Branch of Indian Navy. Shri R.C. Arora, Director (R&D), BPR&D participated on Bureau's behalf and delivered a lecture on "Organization of Police Administration in India".

Promoted

Dr.B.V. Trivedi has been promoted as Deputy Director on 15 May 2008. He joined the Bureau as Research Officer in 1982 and risen to the present level due to the sheer dint of his ability and hard work. He is single handed authority on the subject of Prison & Corrections in the Bureau. On account of his specialization and contribution in the field of correctional administration, he has been continuously heading the Correctional Administration Division of the BPR&D since, 1996. His most valuable contributions are in the formulation of Model Prison Manual ; Modernization Scheme for Prison Administration; institution of President's Correctional Service Medals Scheme for Prison Officers and organised the All India Prison Duty Meet and All India Conference of DsG/IsG Prisons and Secretaries(Prisons) at the national level. He is a recipient of Police Medal for Meritorious Service on the occasion of Republic Day, 2006.

Pradesh and West Bengal attended the training. The programme was aimed at upgrading the training skills of Prison Officials who can not be spared for formal training due to serious human resource constraints.

Training on Personality Development for Prison Officers

All India Training on Personality Development for Prison Officers

Transferred

A farewell party held at BPR&D Headquarters

A warm send off was accorded to Sh. Nasir Kamal, Deputy Director(Training), BPR&D on 24th June 2008 on his Promotion and appointment as Director National Crime Record Bureau(NCRB), New Delhi. A promising 1986 Batch IPS officer of UP cadre, Shri Kamal joined BPR&D on 16th Dec 2005 and during his stint he contributed his valuable knowledge and experience toward enriching the Training Division of the Bureau.

BPR&D sponsored an All India training programme for the Prison Officers on Personality Development which was organized by Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow (UP) from 17th to 25th May, 2008. The programme was organized as per the guidelines of the Draft National Policy on Prison Reforms and Correctional Administration containing the provisions for staff training on personality development. 60 prison officials from the rank of Deputy Jailor to DIG from different States like Andhra Pradesh, Haryana, Karnataka, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal attended the programme in three batches. The major problems of overcrowding in jails, reformation and rehabilitation of prisoners, threats from mafia, budgetary and staff constraints, security of prisons and working hours of Prison officers were discussed in detail during the programme.

Training programme for Prison Officers

A three-day training of Trainers (TOT) programme for the Prison Officials was organized by the Institute of Correctional Administration, Chandigarh from 26th to 28th May, 2008. Prison officials from the

Valediction function for trainees at CDTs, Chandigarh

States of Delhi, Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Uttar

  ANNOUNCEMENT

39th ALL INDIA POLICE SCIENCE CONGRESS is being hosted by DGP, Assam, at Guwahati. It will be held in January 2009. Themes selected for discussion :

- (a) Key Performance Indicators for various posts, units & ranks in Police
- (b) Separation of Law and Order & Investigation – impact and implications

For more details visit our website : www.bprd.gov.in